

Good day Sons!

The time is fast approaching for the 2018 Colorado State High School Oratorical speech contest. I am inviting all Sons to help with this great American Legion event. This event will take place on Saturday March 10, 2018 at Metro State University. For those who have been involved and have experienced hearing the students , WOW! This is a huge event to organize. We need Volunteers including Escorts, Timers, Judges, Ushers, Tabulator's, Moderators and of course Students. Now is the time to start reaching out to your Squadrons/post. The $150 application fee per contestant is paid by the sponsoring Posts or Squadrons. I look forward to this year's contest being the best ever. Janelle Rodriguez and I attended the Americanism Conference last month which included the Oratorical College. We came away with some great information. There is a lot of Scholarship money available for these students and you can make the difference.
